

Minimum services for public passenger transport established for the 8 March strike

- All passenger transport operators will offer 85% of their services throughout the day

Barcelona, 7 March.- The Ministry of Business and Labour has issued a minimum services order for the 8 March (International Women's Day) general strike, establishing the following:

- Metro network and AMB Metropolitan Bus (TMB services and services under indirect management): 85% of the service throughout the day.
- Rodalies i Regionals de Catalunya (commuter and regional trains) operated by Renfe Operadora: 85% of the service throughout the day.
- Ferrocarrils de la Generalitat de Catalunya (Government of Catalonia Railways, or FGC): 85% of the service throughout the day.
- TRAM: 85% of the service throughout the day.
- Other city and intercity passenger transport, and bus service between Barcelona and its airport: 85% of the service throughout the day.

Public transport operators will provide up-to-date service information through their usual information channels.